1. ( ) I agree completely with your suggestion to exchange staff Memoranda for the Record on testimony. We have already been providing  with our Memoranda for the Record on budget authorization and appropriation hearings, and have been receiving those prepared by the OPBD monitors. I will now see that copies of all OLC Memoranda for the Record are sent directly to you.

2. ( ) As you know, this office serves as the focal point for Congressional relations with the DCI and DDCI. As such we have the best set of records about past involvements with Congressional Committees and individual Congressmen on a wide variety of issues. This includes a recently instituted rapid search capability on statements made in transcripts of hearings. All of this data is available to assist you at your request. I would ask only that you help us maintain this capability by reporting all Congressional contacts.
